Address by the USSR Academy President A.P. Aleksandrov at the Institute for Nuclear Research, Ukrainian Academy of Sciences, 19 May 1978

Abstract

This previously unpublished text contains the minutes of a 1978 presentation, by A. P. Aleksandrov and his subsequent discussion with Kiev colleagues on the problems of world energy resources and Soviet economic and scientific strategies. Some questions debated then bear importance even now. Physicists V. A. Sidorenko and V. V. Orlov, two leading experts on energy production and former collaborators of Aleksandrov, provide a commentary on the document.
